

Seminar „Women and authority in European Union”

10-10.30, Monday, 7 march 2011

European Parliament Information Office in Poland 14/16a Jasna street

Programme

Opening: Piotr Wolski- press attaché, European Parliament Information Office in Poland

Panel discussion:

- o Adam BIELAN, deputy of the European Parliament (ECR)
- o Krystyna KOFTA, writer
- o Krzysztof ISZKOWSKI, sociologist, Centre for the Study of Democracy SWPS
- o Agnieszka POMASKA, parliamentary representative (PO)
- o Anna RADWAN, Chief of The Robert Schuman Foundation of Poland
- o Elzbieta RADZISZEWSKA, Government Plenipotentiary for Equal Treatment

There will be discussed:

- Does contemporary Europe require actions as heroic as suffragist's?
- Treaty of Lisbon in the context of developmental chance for women. European Citizens' Initiative- real form of influencing on decision process in European Union?
- What conclusions can we take after a hundred-year clove's tradition?
- Discussion about the results of European Commission's report "More women in senior positions – key to economic stability and growth"

Seminar will be broadcasted on the European Parliament Information Office in Poland's website www.europarl.pl.

More information about an event:

<http://schuman.pl/programy-fundacji-schumana/kobiety-dla-europy>

FONDATION ROBERT
SCHUMAN

