

Furthermore, on the one hand, current law is faced with the challenges raised by the digital economy; on the other hand, European competition law does not take sufficient account of international competition.

Would it not be necessary to balance competition policy and industrial policy so that the objectives of the latter could be fully developed?

RSVP before 20 January:

I Attend

e.maurice@robert-schuman.eu

Tel: +32 (0)2 502 47 13