

Symposium 60 years Honorary Doctorate Robert Schuman-Konrad Adenauer

At the occasion of the 60th anniversary of the Honorary Doctorate that was granted to Robert Schuman and Konrad Adenauer on 11 January 1958 at the KU Leuven, the Wilfried Martens Fund, together with the Brussels' offices of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung and the Fondation Robert Schuman, is organising a symposium on the Franco-German axis and its past, present and future role in European integration.

Date and venue: Thursday 11 January 2018, KU Leuven Central Library (Ladeuze Square 21, 3000 Leuven)

Spoken languages: English/French/German (no translation provided)

Programme:

13.30 hrs Welcome and short introduction about the event by Steven Van Hecke (KU Leuven)

Keynote by President Joseph Daul (European People's Party) - confirmed
Q&A with the audience moderated by Steven Van Hecke

Presentations and panel debate with, among others,

- Prof. dr. Beate Neuss (Vice-President KAS/TU Chemnitz) - invited
- Prof. dr. Mathieu Segers (Maastricht University) - confirmed
- Dr. Yann-Sven Rittelmeyer (CEPS) – confirmed

Closing words by Vicerector Bart Raymaekers (KU Leuven) - confirmed

16.00hrs End/Coffee

Online registration: https://soc.kuleuven.be/io/wilfriedmartensfonds/registration\_symposium

FONDATION ROBERT SCHUMAN

 Konrad
Adenauer
Stiftung

KU LEUVEN

Wilfried Martens Fund

www.kuleuven.be/WilfriedMartensFund

